Office Action Summary

DETAILED ACTION

1.) Claims 1-24 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-24 of U.S. Patent No. 5,601,741. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the limitations of the claims of the application differ from the patented claims by minor rephrasings of the patented claim limitations. These differences obviously do not distinguish over the patented claims (for example, in claim 1 of the patented claim, last paragraph, "auxiliary power source configured" has been rewritten in the application as "auxiliary power controller configured"; in patented claim 9, "receiving the any ac voltage" has been rewritten in the application claim 9 as "receiving the ac input; in patented claim 17, "power signal voltage" has been rewritten in the application claim 17 as "power signal")

2.) The non-statutory double patenting rejection, whether of the obvious-type or non-obvious-type, is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent. In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); In re Van Ornam, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); and In re Goodman, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321 (b) and (c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a non-statutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.78 (d).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a Terminal Disclaimer. A Terminal Disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).
